[Gov. Pub. Section]

U.S. Educational Research Information Center. Educational Research Document Summaries. The first of two governmental publications which abstracted research reports in education prior to Research in Education (ERIC), this three volume set contains abstracts of reports numbered ED 001 001--ED 002 740. There are no indexes in this set, but the previous publication contains an author index to these documents. They are available on microfiche in the Documents Section.

[Gov. Pub. Section]

U.S. Educational Research Information Center. Office of Education Research Reports, 1956-1965. The second of the two governmental publications preceding Research in Education (ERIC), this two volume set indexes and abstracts research and related reports in education from ED 002 747--ED 003 960. The "Indexes" volume contains four indexes: author, institution, subject, and report number. Citations in each index are keyed to the ED accession number of the report. The "Resumes" volume contains a complete description of these reports in order by ED accession number. Each entry contains author, title, source, price, the descriptors used to index the report, and an abstract. Although these reports are not on the ERIC computer tapes they are available in the Documents Section on microfiche.

U.S. Educational Research Information Center. Catalog of Selected Documents on the Disadvantaged: Number and Author Index. Under the 1965 Elementary and Secondary Education Act (PL 89-10) the Educational Research Information Center was delegated the responsibility of making information about education research more readily available. This publication lists the 1740 documents collected by that agency in 1965 describing 23 innovative educational programs for the disadvantaged which, in their opinion, were of national interest. The entries are in order by accession number with an author index at the end. A full description with abstract may be found in Educational Research Document Summaries, and the documents themselves are available on microfiche in the Documents Section.
